

THEY'LL NEVER DIE

Elton Fax

Atlanta Daily World (1932-2003); Nov 6, 1946; ProQuest Historical Newspapers: Atlanta Daily World

pg. 4

THEY'LL NEVER DIE

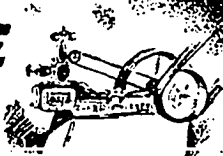

By Elton Fax

JEREMIAH D. BALTIMORE, BORN WASHINGTON, D.C. 1852, SHOWED AN EARLY INTEREST IN ENGINES. WHILE STILL A BOY HE BUILT A CRUDE STEAM ENGINE WHICH CAPTURED THE NOTICE OF PRES. U.S. GRANT. THIS RESULTED IN HIS APPRENTICESHIP IN THE NAVY YARD AT PHILADELPHIA, AND 'THO THE PREJUDICE WAS GREAT, HE STUDIED AT THE FRANKLIN INSTITUTE, COMPLETING THE ENGINEERING COURSE AT 21. MR. BALTIMORE LATER BECAME CHIEF ENGINEER & MECHANIC AT FREEDMAN'S HOSPITAL - WAS A MEMBER OF THE MECHANICS' UNION - AND INVENTED A PYROMETER!

J. D. BALTIMORE

ENGINEER, MACHINIST, AND INVENTOR

Continental Features