THE WORLD ACCLAMES DR. KING

Call and Post

CITY EDITION

SATURDAY, APRIL 11, 1964

Dr. King's Funeral

Nation's Largest

---

ATLANTA, GA.—Dr. Martin Luther King Jr., the great civil rights leader who temporarily left his home in a hospital two years ago, has died. The funeral service for Dr. King was held at the Ebenezer Baptist Church in Atlanta on April 9, 1968.

The service was attended by thousands of people from around the world. The pallbearers included many of Dr. King's closest friends and colleagues, including Dr. Coretta Scott King, Dr. Ralph Abernathy, and Dr. John Lewis.

Dr. King was assassinated on April 4, 1968, in Memphis, Tennessee. The assassins were shot by James Earl Ray, who was later convicted of the crime.

---

Father-Baby Slain; Neighbors Won't Talk

Police believe neighbors and friends of the 7-year-old girl and 1-year-old baby may have been involved in their deaths. The boy was found in his home in Atlanta, while the girl was found in a nearby wooded area.

The girl was described as having long dark hair and wearing a white dress. The boy was described as having short red hair and wearing blue overalls.

---

Mrs. King Felt 'Compulsion'

To Lead March in Memphis

By Ray M. Card

Mrs. Coretta Scott King felt a 'compulsion' to lead the March on Washington on August 28, 1963. She had been planning the event for months, but her husband, Dr. Martin Luther King Jr., was unable to attend due to his health problems.

---

Leob Covers Dr. King's Last March

Dr. King's last march was on April 4, 1968, in Memphis, Tennessee. He was shot and killed that day. Leob covered the event and wrote a story about it.

---

Council Gets Ordinance To Make Hough Blvd.

To protect the neighborhood

By Howard Taylor

The Cleveland City Council passed an ordinance on April 9, 1964, to make Hough Boulevard a pedestrian-only street. The move was made in response to the violence and crime that had been occurring in the area.

---

RUMOR MILLION DOLLAR POLICY ON KING'S LIFE

ATLANTA—There is a strong rumor that Dr. King's life insurance policy is worth $1 million, which would be a substantial loss to his family.

---

IN TRIBUTE—Memphis, Tenn. — Mrs. Martin Luther King Jr., and the Rev. Ralph Abernathy, successor to the slain civil rights leader, lead the city's memorial march. The march was held on April 15, 1968, to honor Dr. King.

Reproduced with permission of the copyright owner. Further reproduction prohibited without permission.