L A CONFIDENTIAL: THE ASPHALT JUNGLE CALLED L.A.
Robertson, Stanley
Los Angeles Sentinel (1934-2005); Apr 9, 1959; ProQuest Historical Newspapers: Los Angeles Sentinel
pg. C1

LAS VEGAS PARTY LINE...

In a story published in the Las Vegas Review-Journal on Friday, May 14, 1976, it was reported that the Reverend Andrews was the founder of the Church of the Nazarene, which later became the Assemblies of God. The newspaper also noted that Andrews was involved in a number of charitable and social causes, including the establishment of schools and orphanages in South America. He was known for his dedication to helping the poor and oppressed, and his work was often praised by civil rights leaders and other prominent figures. Andrews was born on November 20, 1919, in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, and died on September 1, 1993, in South Bend, Indiana. He is buried at Mount Calvary Cemetery in Indianapolis, Indiana. Andrews was a member of the Church of the Nazarene, and heerved as the president of the denomination from 1980 to 1990. He was also a member of the American Council of Churches and the National Council of Churches. Andrews was a pioneer in the civil rights movement, and he was a strong advocate for the rights of minorities. He was a charter member of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference, and he served as one of the leaders of the Montgomery Bus Boycott. Andrews was a dedicated Christian educator, and he served as the president of several Christian colleges and universities. Andrews was a man of great humility and grace, and he was beloved by millions of people around the world. His legacy continues to inspire and encourage people of all backgrounds to work together for justice and peace.