

Miss Dorothy Simmons Becomes Bride of William Williams, Jr.

Mrs. Thomas Simmons, of Washington and Southern Maryland, announced the marriage of her daughter, Dorothy Mae, to William Grayer Williams, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. W. Grayer Williams, of Washington, September 21, at St. Mary Rectory, Indian Head, Md., with the Rev. Father Dillon officiating.

The bride's wedding dress was of spruce green wool with red fox trimming and accessories to match. She wore a corsage of sweetheart roses and lilies of the valley.

Cousin Was Matron

Miss Marjorie Wormley Montero of Brooklyn, cousin of the bridegroom, was matron of honor. She wore a dress of chateau wine velvet and accessories to match. Her corsage was of talisman roses and baby's breath. Frank Montero was the best man.

A reception was held at the home of the bride after the ceremony with only members of the two immediate families present. Immediately afterwards, the couple left on a wedding trip which included New York and other points of interest.

Mrs. W. Grayer Williams is a member of Delta Sigma Theta Sorority. The bridegroom is a member of Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity. They are now at home at 1709 Second Street, Northwest.

THE REV. A. M. GILBERT of New York City was the guest speaker at Shiloh Baptist Church on Sunday morning last.
