

Ro-Ka-Wi Guests Don Tattered Hobo Clothes

Bray, L

Cleveland Call and Post (1934-1962); Mar 23, 1957;

ProQuest Historical Newspapers: Cleveland Call and Post

pg. 1_B

Ro-Ka-Wi Guests Don Tattered Hobo Clothes

By L. ROSLYN BRAY

It wasn't easy to select the winner at the annual Hobo party given by the Ro-Ka-Wi Saturday night at the Carlton House, as many arrived in tattered clothing, patched trousers, sloppy straws and frayed shirts.

However, the judges, Mrs. J. Roy Terry, Dargan Burns and Mrs. L. Roslyn Bray, named Harold Bradley and Diane Brown the two top hobos. Mr. Bradley wore tails, top hat and a short stubbed cigar in his mouth. Miss Lightner, to win a set of gold plated glasses, carried a pail. Mr. Bradley won a table lighter.

Saul Lucas and his orchestra played. Dancer Twanda was the star of the floor show that presented a Sudanese dance group.

Mrs. Irene Williams is president of the club. Other members are Mesdames Lillian White, Albert Pottinger, Beverly Clancy, Barbara Terry Harris, Hollie Bush, Gloria Patrick, Charles Fleming, Jermain Moore, Bonnie Campbell, Rose Porter, Charlotte Williams, Marguerite Shurney and Mary Kennedy. Though the club has a stimulating program they freely give their services in assisting Mrs. Carrie Turner, social worker at the Blind Society.

Seen among the dancers were: Mary Williams, Mr. and Mrs. Elliott, Eddie Stinson, Norma Smith, James A. Raplin, Annie R. Henry, Mr. and Mrs. Wright Johnson, Jay Frame, George White, Howard Bush, Mr. and Mrs. Zinzendorf Laisure, Mr. and Mrs. David Patrick, Miss Carrie Tolliver, William Clayton, Dorothy Saunders, John Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. John Humphrey, Mr. and Mrs. James Pope, Norma Mayle, Norma Leath, Robert Sawyer, Caruso Ivery.

Mattie Butler, Mr. and Mrs. Harney King, Mrs. Daniel Dickerson, Miss Juanita Traylor, Miss Ann McCullom, Mrs. Frances Tyler, Mr. and Mrs. George Grant,

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Hall, Mr. and Mrs. R. Orr, Mr. and Mrs. Ludie Couch, Mike Jackson Diane Brown, Mrs. Shirley Thomas Duncan, a former member now living in Columbus, Miss Joanna Bryant, Oliver Dunn, Mr. and Mrs. George Grant, Waldean Oglesby, and Jackie Bland of Akron.

When you prune shrubs lightly always cut back to a strong bud—preferably one that points in the direction you want the new growth to take, advises the March issue of Better Homes & Gardens magazine. Make each cut slanting and slightly above the bud. Use sharp tools.