Today's page one Miss

Introducing Elaine Chiles, better known as Chili, who was selected as the Chicago Daily Defender's first "Page One Miss." Miss Chiles, who is a radio disc jockey over radio station WBEE, is a graduate of Southern Illinois University where she majored in Sociology. Chili worked as a case worker for the Department of Public Aid for two years and returned to school to get her teaching credentials. Upon graduation, she taught for four years in the Chicago public school system. Now, she's one of the hottest radio personalities in the Chicago area. (Daily Defender Photos by Bill Wallace)

Hunting...

Lou Downing has been selected to service as talent coordinator for the Daily Defender's 'Page One Miss' beauties. Downing will be responsible for selecting beauties to serve as 'Page One Misses'.
