Militants Urge 'A Day Of Absence'

Members of Black United Front, a militant group of South and West-side residents have urged that all black people take part in "A Day Of Absence" in honor of the late Dr. Martin Luther King who was slain in Memphis, Tenn. The organization revealed the plan at a meeting held in the Board Room of the Daily Defender, 2400 S. Michigan ave. At the same time they pledged to provide help for the needy, and to raise bail money for those who have been jailed as a result of the rioting that followed in the aftermath of Dr. King's death. (Photo by Lloyd Saunders)
