

Peace Reigns At Rainbow Beach

Chicago Daily Defender (Daily Edition) (1960-1973); Aug 15, 1961;

ProQuest Historical Newspapers: Chicago Defender

pg. 16

Peace Reigns At Rainbow Beach

A "wade-in" demonstration by 30 Negroes took place without incident for the second consecutive week Sunday at predominantly white Rainbow Beach.

The "freedom waders" were joined by 30 white demonstrators and passed freely among an estimated 5,000 white bathers. Racial friction at the beach earlier this summer resulted in several arrests and charges of abuse against Negroes.