

TRIBUNE GIRLS DEFEND RECORD ON CAGE TOUR THROUGH SOUTH

GREENSBORO, N. C.—Led by that great player, Miss Ora Washington, Otto Briggs' Philadelphia Tribune Girls, national colored basketball champions, who are playing through some of the southern states, made their first appearance here Monday night, March 12, in the Sports Arena and thrilled the 1,220 fans by their great playing when they won the first game of the three-game series from the Bennett College girls 1934 undefeated college champions, 31-22.

LEACH STARS FOR TRIBUNE

HIGH POINT, N. C.—The Philadelphia Tribune Girls won their second straight game of the series here on Tuesday evening at the William Penn High School Gym from the Bennett girls of Greensboro, 18 to 13.

TAKE THJRD STRAIGHT

GREENSBORO, N. C. — The Philadelphia Tribune Girls returned here on Wednesday night and again won from Bennett, 31-20, making their third straight sweep at the series.

STATE NORMAL FALLS

FAYETTEVILLE, N. C. — The Philadelphia Tribune Girls' Basketball Team won their fourth straight game of their southern tour when they added the State Normal School here to their list in a very well played game, 20-14.