

HARLEM GIRL IS SECOND IN CLASS OF 659: THRONES HERE GET DIPLOMAS ...

The New York Amsterdam News (1922-1938); Jun 30, 1934;

ProQuest Historical Newspapers: New York Amsterdam News

pg. 2

HARLEM GIRL IS SECOND IN CLASS OF 659

THRONES HERE GET DIPLOMAS

Textile's Basketball Captain in Class of June "Grads"

Scores of Negro students yesterday were in possession of New York City high school diplomas after a week of graduation exercises.

At Julia Richman, 317 East Sixty-seventh street, where 659 seniors were graduated Thursday night, a Harlem girl, Mildred Kimble, 15, of 167 West 146th street, was second in scholarship. She was one of three students to receive $100 scholarships. Miss Kimble expects to enter Hunter College and prepare to teach business subjects.

She was a member of Julia Richman's Arista Society, captain of the American history group, foyer marshal, personality representative, Bluebird agent, and captain of the biology group.

Other Negro students graduating with her were Rita Blackman, Rowena Byer, Alethea Chase, Hortense Davis, Lillian Davis, Ireta Earle, Lettice Edwards, Frances Jackson, Carroll Johnson, Vivian Johnson.

Also Margaret Manns, Lucille Ogle, Lida Patterson, Josephine Reyes, Ruth Roberts, Gertrude Shaw, Grace Wainwright, Anna Webb, Clarence Welch.

Harlem Honor Graduate.

At Evander Childs a Harlem youth, Garland A. Patton, Jr., was graduated with honors. He was vice-president of his class, personality leader, a member of the Service League, the Honor Society, Arista, the German, French and Spanish Clubs. He was one of two students to receive the distinguished service pin, was voted the most popular and charming student, and the class optimist.

Other Negro students graduating with young Patton were Dolores White, Service League and Arista; Dorothy Powell, Service League; Nancy Cook, Adelaide Price and Marjorie Winfrey, service pin.

At Textile High School, Manhattan, where twenty-eight Negro students received diplomas, Elmer Howard was one of the outstanding seniors. He has served as captain of the basketball team, a championship aggregation, and received the service medal.

Others in his class included Edmund Archibald, George August, Marion Bennett, Winifred Brathwaite, Thelma Burns, Beatrice Coleman, Betrom Cummings, Lucille Cummings, Sarah Edwards, Alethea Elps, McDonald Jacobs, Mildred Jessamy, Altomae Jones, Matilda Pino.

Also Charles Morris, Ernest Morris, Edna R. Rivers, Ernest Rivera, Edna Simmons, Gladys Smith, Mildred Simonds, Dorothy Schmidt, Panchetta Taylor, Norvella Towe, Charles West, Williams, Myrtle.

The list of first quarter students in the graduating class at George Washington, Manhattan, included Dorothy Wynce and Ellen Kraft. Miss Wynce received honors in Spanish. Others in the class included Esperance Wallace, Hazel White, Dorothy Boone, Lloyd Ellis, Michael Galloway, Homer Oxley, Floyd Patterson, Louise Mack, Ruth Marshall, Ruby Millings, Joseph Jackson, Jeddie Dorset, Harold Wiggins, Alice Dunkley, Alicia Guishard.

Also Vera Johnson, Norma McDougall, Helen Simms, Adelaide DeFrantz, Thelma Duany, Alex Wormley, Stanley Thomas, Lillian Finley, Sylvia Goring, Docena Trelling, Willette Hill, John Johnson, Louise Rackstraw.

Murray Hill Industrial graduated a lone Negro student. He was Judson Butler, who specialized in machine shop practice.

Two Bronxites, James Johnson, 814 East 223d street, and Lucille Terrel, 1357 Webster avenue, were among the graduates of Theodore Roosevelt High School.

Miss Elzera McCray, 15-37 150th place, Whitestone, L. I., was the only Negro student graduated at Flushing High.

Wadleigh High contributed perhaps the largest quota of Negro graduates. Sixty-two received diplomas. They were Vera Butler, Lenchen Coleman, Albertina and Dorothy Johnson, Dorothy Julien, Mercedes Lopez, Anna Marshall, Marguerite Petioni, Josephine Smith, Margaret Williams, Viviane Wright, Winifred Benjamin, Ellen Boatswain, Alice Cooper, Mildred Davis, Iona Holmes, Carrie Narry, Maria Ortiz, Pearl St. Louis, Edna Carter, Loretta Atkinson, Erdel Bowman, Elizabeth Briggs, Ida Mae Dixon, Jessie Garrison, Caroline Humphreys and Gertrude Jenkins.

Takes Honors

Mildred Kimble.

Also Mary Jones, Helen Knights, Muriel Nurse, Beatrice Sneed, Daphney Arthur, Phyllis Barker, Phyllis Besson, Beulah Edwards, Grace Franklin, Esma Garth, Ernestine and Wilhelmina Johnson, Carmen Kriger, Ada Lane, Evelyn M. Risien, Laurel Rochford, Hilda Thompson, Esther DeWindt, Dorothy Gibbens, Angela Kirby, Hyacinthe Phillips, Ida Simon, Hattie Stephens, Marjorie Bertrand, Gretta Bolden, Elizabeth Elfe, Helen Houe, Enid Jervis, Evelyn Johnson, Dorothy Lee, Marjorie Miller, Myrtle Mullings, Elmira Phillips, Violet Saunders and Evelyn Trotman.

Negro graduates at Bryant High School, Long Island City, were Kenneth Ambrose, who received honors in history, Anna Wood and Winifred Gonzalez. Miss Gonzalez, who is 17, won honors in biology, history and science. She won the gold medal in the public-speaking contest, was chief patrol leader, and was credited with writing plays by the English department. She expects to enter Long Island University in the fall.

Manual Training High School, Brooklyn, awarded diplomas to Helen Deas, Margaret Parris, Madeline Pyle, Thelma Gumbs, Marlon Overton, Charles Fowikes, Albert Williams and Edythe Johnston. Warren Bunn received a certificate.

The Negro graduates at Washington Irving High School were Mildred Hanley, Jane Reynolds, Muriel Walker, Adie Williamston, Audrey

(Continued on Page Fifteen.)

THRONGS GRADUATE FROM SCHOOLS HERE

(Continued from Page Two.)

Brown, Ismay Gumbs, Mildred Daniels, Dorthea McDowell, Rheta Peters, Willieanna Satchell, Lilly Richardson, Doris Shafe, Marie Willis, Anna Williams, Eleter Ganes and Eugenia Kelly.

Six Harlem youths were graduated from the Stuyvesant High School. They were Victor Bowser, Carl Browne, Hugo Forde, Vincent Giscombe, Richard Harwell and Thomas Sinclair.

Among those who were graduated from the DeWitt Clinton High School on Thursday were Richard Anthony, Cyrille Bishop, Benjamin Bluford, Oscar Bough, James Browne, Cecil Cummins, Harold A. Dolly, Gordon Emptage, Byron Foster, Leon and Leonard Harris, George Hendricks, Robert Hendrickson, James H. Hilton, Harold Holder, William Holsey, Rudolph Kirven, Kendell McAllister, John Morrison, Homer Nichols, Deighton Richards, Roy Selden, Ainslie Storey, James Strachan, Leon Taylor, Eidred Wade, Livingston Wingate.