

E. C. BROWN

Former head of Brown-Stevens Bank, who died in New York Tuesday Night.

E. C. Brown Dies In New York City

E. C. Brown, former president of the Brown and Stevens Bank here, died Wednesday morning at his home, 574 S. Nicholas avenue, New York City.

Stricken with a nervous breakdown shortly before the Christmas holidays, Mr. Brown had been confined to his bed ever since. He was attended by Dr. U. Conrad Vincent.

His former associate in the banking business, Andrew F. Stevens, visited him at his bedside last week at which time Mr. Brown failed to recognize his former partner.