

The Tribune Girls, the National basketball champions, are looking forward to another busy season under the direction of their new coach, Tom Dixon. The champs have an enviable record of losing only four games since they won the title from Joe Rainey's Germantown Hornets six years ago.
